

NORTHERN KENTUCKY RIGHT TO LIFE

The March for Life

January 22, 2021

On this 48th anniversary of the infamous decision of the Supreme Court exercising its raw judicial power over the lives of the defenseless unborn, we join with a multitude of others in many cities across this nation, to carry the message of Life to President Joe Biden and to the 147th Congress. We join the over 100,000 people who will march for life in Washington, DC, on January 29.

As much as we would like to be there, for many it is impossible to travel to Washington. Again, we March on Paper. We openly lend our names to urge the adoption of a mandatory Human Life Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

WE HAVE TAKEN A STAND!
WE WILL NOT COMPROMISE!
AND WE WILL BE HEARD!

DENIAL OF THE PERSONHOOD OF THE UNBORN CHILD IS BASED ON A LIE

A person's individual life begins at conception, not birth.

- "Biologically, at no stage can we subscribe to the view that the foetus is a mere appendage of the mother. Genetically, mother and baby are separate individuals from conception." A. W. Liley, M.D., widely referred to as "the father of fetology."
- "It is scientifically correct to say that an individual human life begins at conception, when the egg and sperm join to form the zygote, and that this developing human always is a member of our species in all stages of its life. There is not one medical text in use in one medical school in this country that teaches to the contrary." Micheline Matthews-Roth, M.D., principal research associate of the Harvard University Medical School.
- "Life has a very, very long history, but each individual has a very neat beginning, the moment of its conception." Jerome Lejeune, M.D., professor of fundamental genetics at the University of Descartes, Paris, France.

The Baby at 8 Weeks

Heart Beats Brain Waves Will Grasp Objects

With permission, "Abortion: Questions & Answers"
Wilke-Hayes Publishing Co., Cincinnati, OH

Contrary to Justice Blackmun's blithe assertion in Roe v. Wade that "the unborn have never been recognized in the law as persons in the whole sense," there is a wealth of legal authority to the contrary, predating (and also postdating) Roe.

"Medical authority has long recognized that an unborn child is in existence from the moment of conception. ... All writers who have discussed the problem have joined in condemning the total no-duty role and agree that the unborn child in the path of an automobile is as much a person in the street as the mother, and should be equally protected under the law. ... Most courts have allowed recovery, even though the injury occurred during the early weeks of pregnancy, when the child was neither viable nor quick. Viability of course does not affect the question of the legal existence of the unborn ..." Prosser and Keaton on Torts, Second Ed., Sec. 36 (1955).

Professor Robert M. Byrne published an excellent analysis of Roe, "An American Tragedy - The Supreme Court on Abortion":

"Three generations of Americans have witnessed decisions by the U.S. Supreme Court which explicitly degrade fellow human beings to something less in law than 'persons in the whole sense.' One generation was present at Scott v. Sandford [denying rights to slaves], another at Buck v. Bell [denying rights to 'mentally disabled' people], and now a third at Roe v. Wade [denying rights to unborn children]. Are not three generations of error enough? ... First, Dred Scott, then Buck v. Bell, and now the most tragic of them all - Roe v. Wade. Three generations of error are three too many - and the last of them shall be called the worst." Fordham Law Review, May 1973.

The right to life "is not merely one among many urgent issues, but rather the foundational one. It provides the cornerstone for a whole architecture of human dignity," Archbishop Charles Chaput of Philadelphia wrote in a column for Catholic Philly, reports lifetenews.com (10/18/13). "Nothing has changed in recent months or years in Catholic thinking about the sanctity of human life. Nor can it.

"We have an obligation to work for human dignity at every state and in every circumstance of human life. ... But when we revoke legal protection for unborn children - when we accept the intimate violence abortion inflicts both on the women and their unborn children - we violate the first and most important human right, the right to life itself... And once we do that, and then create a system of alibis to justify it, we begin to put every other human and civil right at risk."
