NORTHERN KENTUCKY RIGHT TO LIFE

The March for Life

January 22, 2023

On this 50th anniversary of the infamous decision of the Supreme Court exercising its raw judicial power over the lives of the defenseless unborn, we join with a multitude of others in many cities across this nation to give witness to the sanctity of all innocent human life and to the intrinsic evil act of abortion.

Again, we march on paper. We openly lend our names to urge the adoption of a mandatory Human Life Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

WE HAVE TAKEN A STAND!
WE WILL NOT COMPROMISE!
AND WE WILL BE HEARD!

MEET THE ABORTION PROVIDERS

Over the last 50 years, the prayers of millions of pro-lifers have moved the hand of God, which reached down and lifted up out of the abortion industry many medical doctors, converting them from being abortionists to pro-life advocates.

Dr. Kathi Aultman

"It wasn't until I saw young girls in my practice who had babies and did really well, and I had always thought that an unplanned pregnancy for a young girl was the worst thing that could happen to her. …I had other patients who were seeing psychiatrists, struggling with the physical complications of abortion, and it just wasn't what I expected. It didn't jive with the rhetoric that I had embraced," expressed Dr. Kathi Aultman, a retired OB/GYN who is now with the pro-life Charlotte Lozier Institute.

Dr. Patti Giebink

A former OB/GYN with Planned Parenthood, Dr. Patti Giebink stated in an interview with Focus on the Family: "I would be delivering babies the day before and the day after, and then I'd go to the abortion day. When I think back, and I think…well that's really mentally schizophrenic: working really hard to save my OB patients and their babies, and then the next day going in and doing pregnancy terminations."

Dr. Beverly McMillan

Having carried out over hundreds of abortions in Jackson, Mississippi, Dr. Beverly McMillan related: "The problem was, I was so depressed, I could hardly stand it.

"Part of the abortion process is when I would take the suction cloth out of the machine, bring it over to the sink, and make sure I got all the right parts. If not, I would have to go back and suction more, or else the woman would be back 48 hours later with an infection.

"One day, an associate wanted to see me do this, and I happened to be performing an abortion on a 12-week-old fetus. I thought to myself, 'This will be good because the fetus is big enough to see all of the parts clearly.' You could see that the fetus was a little boy and sitting apart (from the body, torn off) was a little arm with a perfectly formed little bicep muscle. It reminded me of my son when he flexed his arm. And I thought, 'What am I doing? Five minutes ago, that was all complete.'"

A SURVIVOR

"I am happy to be alive. I almost died. Every day I thank God for life. I do not consider myself a byproduct of conception, a clump of tissue, or any other of the titles given to a child in the womb. I do not consider any person conceived to be any of those things," states Gianna Jessen, who survived a saline abortion when she was at the age of 24 weeks gestation. (A saline abortion is when the abortionist replaces some of the amniotic fluid with a highly concentrated salt solution, which slowly poisons the unborn child, while it burns off the outer layer of skin.) Even though she has cerebral palsy and has undergone numerous operations, this young lady states: "I still limp, but I can walk, run, dance, and jump. Maybe not as well as you or a lot of other people, but I do okay for me."

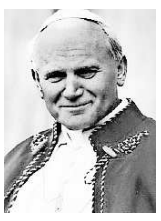
The Ultimate Issue

St. Pope John Paul II, concluding his visit to the United States in 1987, warned:



"The best traditions of your land presume respect for those who cannot defend themselves. If you want equal justice for all, and true freedom and lasting peace, then, America, defend life! All the great causes that are yours today will have meaning only to the extent that you guarantee the right to life and protect the human person:

- feeding the poor and welcoming refugees;
- reinforcing the social fabric of this nation;
- promoting the true advancement of women;
- securing the rights of minorities;
- pursuing disarmament, while guaranteeing legitimate defense;

"All this will succeed only if respect for life and its protection by the law is granted to every human being from conception until natural death.

"This is the dignity of America, the reason she exists, the condition for her survival - yes, the ultimate test of her greatness: to respect every human person, especially the weakest and most defenseless ones, those as yet unborn."
